

Receipt

A receipt is a business entity, which documents the receipt of goods.

□

Contents

- 1 Contained information
- 2 Triggering processes of receipts
- 3 Related apps
- 4 Related articles

Contained information

A receipt is always linked to a person (mandatory) which accepted the goods.

Other information is:

- each receipt typically links to a shipment or an expected shipment
- each receipt has a handover location, which can be a receipt address or a warehouse. This is typically defined at the linked the shipment or expected shipment
- holds a list of received goods

Triggering processes of receipts

Processing triggering a receipt are:

- Shipments / Return shipments
- Direct Handout
- Find

Related apps

- App>Returns Creation Wizard \(RCW\)

Related articles

- ZUGSEIL Quality and Returns Management \(QRM\)